Corporate membership applications will be reviewed by Association staff. If, for any reason, the Association staff determines that an applicant can not provide beneficial information or services to our members, the application will be denied. A denied application does not preclude an organization from advertising in our publications or exhibiting at our Annual Meeting.

Corporate memberships will be in effect for the calendar year. The Association of Towns reserves the right to refuse or cancel membership. A pro-rated refund will be granted only in the case where a member is cancelled before a calendar year is completed. Please keep a copy of this paperwork for your records.

All advertisements, articles and proposed speaking topics are subject to approval by Association of Towns staff. If you have any questions regarding this program, please call Kim Splain, Deputy Director at 518/465-7933.
